RUNNING WITH THE DOGS

(Knoxville) The 3rd annual University of Tennessee College of Veterinary Medicine (UTCVM) 5K Fun Run and 1 Mile Dog Jog/costume contest will take place Saturday, October 30 at 9a.m. The events will be held on the Agriculture campus of The University of Tennessee.

The 5K Run starts on Joe Johnson Drive at the veterinary school, crosses the bridge to main campus and loops back to the vet school. Medals will be awarded in different age groups and will be divided between male and female categories.

The Dog Jog/costume contest will loop around the veterinary school. Participants have the option of dressing themselves and/or the dogs in Halloween costumes. Dog food and treats will be given away to the winners.

Proceeds from the event will benefit the Student Chapter of the American Veterinary Medical Association and the Knoxville-Knox County Animal Center. For more information contact Sarah Petre at 865-694-8673.
