(Knoxville) Bruce McNeil, a pharmacist at the University of Tennessee College of Veterinary Medicine, has become board certified with the International College of Veterinary Pharmacists. McNeil is one of 15 diplomats with the ICVP worldwide. In addition to meeting certain standards of practice and experience, McNeil passed the rigorous ICVP exam which covers compounding, drug therapy for different species, intravenous therapy, and chemotherapy. McNeil, who has been with the veterinary college since 1978, earned his BS degree in Pharmacy from Mercer University and is also a Fellow of the Society of Veterinary Hospital Pharmacists. McNeil was instrumental in developing the curriculum for a clinical rotation the college of veterinary medicine offers to pharmacy students at the UT Health Science Center in Memphis.
