FACULTY MEMBER ELECTED PRESIDENT OF NATIONAL SPECIALTY BOARD

(Knoxville) Dr. Gregory Daniel, DVM, Professor and Director of Radiological Services at the University of Tennessee College of Veterinary Medicine, has been named President of the American College of Veterinary Radiology (ACVR). The ACVR is the recognized veterinary specialty organization in veterinary diagnostic imaging. The ACVR certifies candidates in veterinary radiology through board examinations, accredits resident training programs and encourages the development of teaching personnel and research in veterinary radiology. Daniel has been a Diplomate with the ACVR since 1987 and has been at the UT veterinary college since 1987. He earned his Doctor of Veterinary Medicine degree from Auburn University, his MS from the University of Illinois and his BS from the University of Kentucky. Daniel's clinical interests are nuclear medicine and diagnostic radiology. His research interests are quantitative nuclear medicine and digital image processing.
